Alps Alpine Recognized as Stellantis’ North American Supplier of the Year

Alps Alpine Co., Ltd. (TSE: 6770; President & CEO: Hideo Izumi; Headquarters: Ota Ward, Tokyo; hereinafter referred to as “Alps Alpine”) announced today that it was named Stellantis’ North American Supplier of the Year during the Company’s third annual Global Supplier Awards ceremony at the Conner Center in Detroit.

Alps Alpine was recognized for their collaboration and partnership in creating industry-leading products, including Premium Audio Systems, as well as for their innovation and technology in new products. This is the second Supplier of the Year award Alps Alpine has received from Stellantis.

“We are honored to be recognized by Stellantis as the top supplier in North America,” said Robert Hill, President and CEO of Alps Alpine North America. “This award recognizes the superior efforts and dedication of the entire Alps Alpine team that supports our Stellantis business and programs.”

“We extend our heartfelt congratulations to this year’s ‘Supplier of the Year’ winners whose dedication and impeccable standards have helped us navigate challenges and achieve new heights,” said Maxime Picat, Chief Purchasing and Supply Chain Officer, Stellantis. “Their collaborative spirit, exceptional performance, uncompromising quality, and timely delivery of parts and services have been integral to our achievements.”

The 2023 Global Supplier Awards recognized 40 suppliers around the world for their outstanding commitment, performance, quality, and operational excellence in 2022. Suppliers were selected by cross-functional leadership teams at Stellantis to receive the “Supplier of the Year” award.
